Sudden Death

Just as we are going to press we learn that Rufus McCord one of Madison County's most substantial citizens died last night at his residence at Brookstown of the infirmities of old age.

Mr. McCord was held in very high esteem by his neighbors and acquaintances. He was about 70 years of age. His wife and one daughter, Miss Bethinia, who married Judge Howard, of Seattle survive him. He was twice married, each time marrying sisters, the Misses Paris.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(Delayed)

The Faculty met last night with Miss May James—subject Emerson.

Mr. Bridges and Misses Traynor and Scrivner attended the barbecue at Lancaster Saturday.

The school is advancing along industrial lines this year. Four grades are given manual training and sewing has been introduced in the grades from the fifth through the high school. Cooking is to be introduced in the high school later.

Dr. Martin gave quite an enjoyable talk in chapel Friday morning.

Quite a lively contest for banners with the words "Best Kept Room" on them is going on. The room winning the banner keeps it a week. Everyone is working enthusiastically and the building shows a marked improvement as a result.

The entire 11th and 12th grades attended the Farmers' Chautauqua at White Hall last Wednesday. The Faculty attended the afternoon session.

Church Notes

Rev. E. B. Barnes is holding special services at Carlisle this week and next.

Prof. Grinstead filled the pulpit at the Christian Church on Sunday morning.

C. K. Marshall will preach at Kavanaugh School House next Sunday, the 19th.

Mrs. J. W. Zaring will entertain the "Teachers Meeting" this evening at 7:30.

The third Sunday in October, which is October 19th will be Infirmity Day in all the churches.

H. M. Hall a noted Temperance lecturer will speak morning and evening Oct. 19, at the Christian Church.

Rev. C. K. Marshall will have charge of the Wednesday evening prayer meeting. We hope to hear of a large attendance.

FOR SALE

The old homestead of J. W. Stivers located at Kingston, Ky., 8 miles from Richmond on the Big Hill pike, is offered for sale. The place contains 7 acres of the finest productive land, some fruit, and is high and dry, well watered and the most choice home place in the little village. The house is a good substantial two-story frame building of 6 rooms and hall and two porches, with fine cellar under main building; also good store house, barn, chicken and carriage houses and all necessary outbuildings. The neighborhood is of the best, accessible to good schools, churches, store and post-office. For terms apply to

PARKS-WHITE

At high noon, on October 8th, 1913, Mr. Claude Elmer Parks of French Lick Springs, Ind., and Miss Lela V. White of this city, were united in marriage at the home of the officiating minister, Dr. H. N. Quisenberry, on Woodland Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Parks left on the two o'clock train for a short wedding trip. They will be "at home" in French Lick after October 20th.

A pretty event of the past week was the dinner given on Tuesday evening by Mrs. Jno. R. Pates at her home on Lancaster Avenue. In the center of the table was a vase of crimson dahlias and autumn leaves while at each plate was a red chrysanthemum filled with bonbons and the lilac card painted with autumn leaves and golden rod.

A very delightful menu was served in courses, covers being laid for the following guests: Mesdames J. B. Cassidy, Elmer Deatherage, H. C. Jasper, B. L. Middleton, W. D. Oldham, R. E. Turley, G. W. Pickels, Grant E. Lilly and Misses Moore, Alley and Dick of Madison Institute.

Miss Evelyn Guinchiglini entertained the Sherwood Club on Saturday afternoon. A very pretty program was given by the following members with the hostess as leader:

"Spring Rejoicing"..... Paul Kaiser

Miss Duncan Foster

Current Events..... Miss Russell White.

"Le Papillon"..... Lavalles

Miss Elizabeth Turley.

Paper on McDowell..... Miss Austin Lilly.

First two movements of

"Patriotic Sonata"..... Beethoven

Miss Elizabeth Burnam.

After enjoying the music the guests were invited to the dining room where ices, sandwiches, candy and coffee were served.

The next meeting of the club will be with Miss Mary Wagers in November.

A very delightful meeting of the D. A. R. was held on Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. W. Caperton at her beautiful suburban home, Blair Park. Almost the full membership was present, and a program of rare interest was given beginning with the reading of the minutes by Miss Ann DeJarnett and followed by the hostess whose subject was "The War of 1812 and the Perry Centennial". Mrs. Mary Bates Miller gave a talk "The Farmers Chautauqua" and Mrs. Mary B. Clay on Alfalfa raising.
